Lexington-Fayette Urban County Human Rights Commission Chair Rabbi Marc Kline announces the appointment of Alicia Vinson and Christopher Ford as members of the Commission.

Ms. Vinson is a World Language Specialist with the Fayette County School Board. She replaces Angela Slaton, who resigned. Ms. Vinson will serve a term that expires January 1, 2010.

Mr. Ford is President and Chief Executive Officer for R.E.A.C.H., Inc., a non-profit agency that offers programs to help low-to-moderate-income families and individuals become first-time homeowners. He replaces Adela DeLeon, whose term expired. Mr. Ford will serve a term that expires January 1, 2012.

The Lexington-Fayette Urban County Human Rights Commission consists of fourteen (14) members. It is the local agency responsible for enforcing the local anti-discrimination laws in employment, housing and public accommodation. Additional information on the Commission is available on its web site at www.lfuchrc.org.
