The Lexington Human Rights Commission would like to invite the public to Picnic with the Police to be held Saturday, May 20th from 1:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. in Douglass Park in Lexington Kentucky. "Picnic with the Police is a great opportunity for the public to meet members of law enforcement in a relaxed atmosphere", said Raymond Sexton, Executive Director of the Lexington Human Rights Commission. "We've garnered enough community support and sponsorships for this event that everything from the food to the drink to the entertainment will be completely free," said Sexton.

Join us for food and refreshments that will be available, along with music and fun for all ages. A perfect event to usher in the summer. The event is free and open to the public. This is a rain or shine event.
