

George D. Williams, Sr.
Deputy Assistant Secretary
U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development
Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity
Office of Policy, Legislative Initiatives & Outreach

George D. Williams, Sr., serves as Deputy Assistant Secretary for the Office of Policy, Legislative Initiatives and Outreach, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity. The Office is responsible for the formulation and communication of all Departmental fair housing and civil rights policy to the public, the press, Congress and executive branch agencies. His Office has the major responsibility for oversight of the implementation of the HUD's Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing (AFFH) Initiative.

Prior to his appointment George was the President and CEO of Diversity Dynamics LLC. Diversity Dynamics provided consultation and training on Leadership Development, Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, Cross Cultural Conflict Management and Diversity Policy Development. George was a consultant, trainer and subcontracting partner with the international consulting firms, BearingPoint, and Deloitte Consulting, providing training and technical assistance on the federal Fair Housing Act enforcement, Disability Rights Laws, and Design and Construction Requirements of the Fair Housing Act. George was a Senior Instructor at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's National Fair Housing Training Academy (NFHTA) at The Graduate School USA. He taught the first ever course for the Academy on the campus of Howard University in August of 2004.

George has provided expert fair housing consultation and court testimony in Fair Housing and Civil Rights related investigations and litigation. He completed undergraduate work at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio and graduate level studies and professional certification work at The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, The University of Colorado at Denver and Portland State University (School of Urban & Public Affairs). George holds the degree of Doctor of Public Administration (DPA).